

CHILD'S BIRTHDAY DREAM
BARES FATHER'S SUICIDE

Tot's Vision Reveals Death of Parent on Anniversary of Wife's Death.

It was Annie Franklin's third birthday yesterday and also the third anniversary of the death of her mother. Last night Annie was sleeping with friends next door to her home, at No. 152 Christopher avenue, Brownsville. About midnight the child awoke from a dream, screaming.

"Take me to papa!" she cried.

Her father was found dead in his chair. Two gas tubes were in his mouth. The little girl said that was how she had seen him in her dream. Benjamin Franklin was a tailor, thirty-five years old. A year ago he lost his right leg. Later another mishap caused blood poisoning in his hand. Recently he had several fingers amputated. As a result he was unable to work.
